 Evoking Magnificence

COTHM Pakistan welcomed world-renowned motivational speaker and author Qaiser Abbas for an interactive session, professional partnership and campus tour at New Garden Town Campus on Wednesday, December 23, 2020.

COTHM Pakistan enters into a partnership with Possibilities Private Limited to ensure that the students are fully equipped with leadership, decision making, team building and conflict management skills.

The core of the corporate partnership between the two prestigious organizations builds on a long-term commitment from the business community and aims to strengthen the dialogue and relation between the two organisations.

The cooperation between COTHM and the business industry is a strong, mutual relationship, based on a customised collaboration built on each company's individual needs. The partnership will provide a friendly environment where you learn all about food alongside professional chefs who prepare you to emerge as a leader for the global work force and the competitive food industry.

“Qaiser encourages his audiences to find value in the type of person they are,
